CORE VALUES

The Core Values of Special Olympics Delaware embody our culture, spirit, and commitment to do our best at all times. These values guide and inform our collaboration, our innovative programming, the design and delivery of meaningful opportunities, and our promotion of understanding, acceptance, and inclusion for the benefit of people with and without intellectual disabilities.

EXCELLENCE: We strive to embrace every opportunity to continually improve the program and experience by ensuring it is safe and of the highest quality.

RESPECT: We believe in honoring differences, individuality, and treating others the way you would want to be treated.

INTEGRITY: We strive to always do what is right, even when no one is looking, and to be truthful at all times.

INCLUSION: We believe that diverse backgrounds and experiences make us stronger. By respecting every individual and valuing our differences – in thought, style, cultures, ethnicity and experience – we contribute fully to the organization's success.

TRUST THE TEAM: We believe that the best outcomes are achieved when people work together across the entire organization. We believe great teams are built on promoting trust and open and honest communication in an atmosphere that encourages and respects self-expression and opinions.

A MESSAGE

FROM THE BOARD PRESIDENT AND SODE PRESIDENT & CEO

The mission and impact of Special Olympics Delaware continue to grow stronger every year, and we are proud to share that 2024 has been our most impactful year to date. Thanks to our athletes, volunteers, and generous supporters, we experienced record-breaking participation in events including the Polar Bear Plunge, Over the Edge, Law Enforcement Torch Run (LETR), Spread the Word campaign, Unified Champion Schools Bocce, Summer Games, Bowling, and Fall Festival.

These milestones are only possible through a combination of three core pillars: a positive athlete experience, exceptional volunteer involvement, and unwavering donor support.

Positive Athlete Experience

Our athletes are at the heart of everything we do. In 2024, they continued to learn new skills, grow in confidence and courage, and form lasting friendships. High-quality facilities and programming, along with meaningful interactions with coaches and volunteers, contributed to these positive experiences. The new Summer Games app also enhanced communication and engagement throughout the season.

Quality of Volunteers

We are grateful for the dedicated individuals who serve in a wide variety of roles—Law Enforcement officers, coaches and assistant coaches, Unified partners, referees, umpires, officials, medical professionals, photographers, day-of event volunteers, corporate teams, board members, and many more. Their commitment and compassion truly elevate the experience for everyone involved.

Generous Donor Support

We are especially thankful for our generous donors and sponsors. Bank of America and DuPont served as co-presenting sponsors this year for Summer Games, while Chase continued its longstanding support of Fall Festival. Events such as the Plunge and Over the Edge continue to thrive thanks to loyal participants and contributors.

We are truly fortunate to be surrounded by such a passionate and engaged community. On behalf of the entire Special Olympics Delaware family, thank you for making 2024 a historic year. We look forward to building on this momentum together.

WHAT IS SPECIAL OLYMPICS?

Special Olympics is a global movement uniting more than 4 million athletes along with 600,000+ Unified Sports partners across 177 countries and territories. It offers year-round sports training and competition in 30+ Olympic-style sports. Delaware's sports are offered at no cost to our athletes and their families—something that makes our program truly special.

But this is about much more than athletics. Special Olympics fosters inclusion, dignity, confidence, and community—on and off the field. With thousands of events and hundreds of thousands of volunteers, it transforms lives, challenges stereotypes, and builds more welcoming societies for people with intellectual disabilities.

2024 FINANCIAL REPORT

In 2024, Special Olympics Delaware achieved a record-breaking year for fundraising. Thanks to our dedicated staff, innovative strategies, generous individual contributions, and robust corporate partnerships, we maintained a strong financial foundation while profoundly impacting the lives of our athletes.

EXPENSES

86%

$0.86 of every dollar directly fueled sports programs that empower Special Olympics athletes across the state.

At Special Olympics Delaware, we believe cost should never stand in the way of participation. That's why all of our programs remain completely free for athletes and their families. Every dollar raised goes directly toward creating opportunities—providing access to training spaces, competition venues, equipment, uniforms, and the tools our athletes need to succeed. With the continued support of our community, we're removing financial barriers and opening doors to inclusion through sport.

MILESTONES & MOMENTUM

UNIFIED CHAMPION SCHOOLS

SO College (UD and DSU)

Students at the University of Delaware and Delaware State University competed head-to-head on a unified playing field for the first time. The schools faced one another in Unified Flag Football at DSU and on the hardwood at UD for Unified Basketball, playing alongside athletes from the Kent Wild Kats, MOT Tigers, and Newark Dragons. DSU's Hornets won both games—better luck next year, Blue Hens!

School Bocce Expansion

Fall 2024 marked significant growth for our Unified Bocce program in schools. Fifteen district-wide events engaged 106 schools and 3,373 athletes and unified partners—a 75% increase in participation from 2023. The momentum reflects the growing impact of inclusive sports across Delaware's schools.

SPORTS AND COMPETITION

Chase sponsored our Fall Festival competition for the 26th year. It marked a transition in leadership with the retirement of Sarah Lammers, but Chase's commitment to SODE remains as strong as ever. Held on the picturesque campus of St. Andrew's School in Middletown, athletes competed in Bocce, Flag Football, Long Distance Running, and Soccer at first-class athletic facilities.

Special Olympics Delaware's Summer Games had its highest involvement ever with 1,001 participants, exceeding pre-pandemic levels. Athletes competed in Bocce, Powerlifting, Softball, Swimming, Tennis, and Track & Field, supported by a dedicated team of coaches, volunteers, and Unified partners. The event showcased the power of sport to bring the community together and celebrate the abilities of every athlete.

A total of 273 Healthy Athletes screenings were conducted across five disciplines: Fit Feet, Healthy Hearing, Opening Eyes, Special Smiles, and Fun Fitness. With a presence at three statewide competitions, the program helped identify health issues, relieve pain, and provide services that athletes might not otherwise receive. It also served as hands-on training for healthcare students and professionals to improve care for individuals with intellectual disabilities.

DEVELOPMENT

Lewes Polar Bear Plunge

Record shattering results were achieved with the most-ever bears and most-ever funds raised in the plunge's 33 year history.

Law Enforcement Torch Run®

The Torch Run experienced a banner year with the most funds ever raised. It also marked the most runners except for the Stronger Together Virtual Torch Run held in 2020. Our torch runners are fully committed to raising funds in support of our athletes.

Tip-A-Cop

A new venue was found with Texas Roadhouse and yielded an extremely successful event which included all 5 restaurants across the state. Law enforcement officers and athletes volunteered side by side raising awareness and resources to fuel SODE's life-changing mission.

Over the Edge

A record number of funds were raised and the event sold out for the second year in a row with 98 edgers. Nearly half of the edgers listed an affiliation to one of Delaware's schools from across the state with Caesar Rodney School District leading the way.

A FOND FAREWELL, A BOLD NEW BEGINNING

Jon Buzby retired at the end of December after 35 years of service with Special Olympics Delaware. His roles were many and included overseeing sports, coaches' education, Unified Champion Schools, and media relations. Known as the "Voice of SODE," he was the go-to emcee for sports competitions and fundraisers alike. We are thankful beyond words for the difference Jon made.

"I loved the event management part of it; I loved the coach's education part of it. There wasn't anything I didn't like about it, and most importantly, I was somehow making a difference in the lives of people with disabilities." ~ Jon Buzby

As SODE continues to expand its programming beyond the pandemic, two new positions have been created to strengthen Marketing and Development efforts: Director of Digital Media and Director of Development.

ATHLETES AT THE HELM

Special Olympics Delaware continues to champion Unified Leadership by empowering athletes to step into meaningful roles that influence health, sports, and organizational decisions. Whether as Health Messengers, Fitness Captains, committee members, or board representatives, these athletes lead with purpose and inspire change across our movement.

FITNESS CAPTAINS

Fitness Captains are athletes who lead their teams in promoting fitness and healthy lifestyles. They motivate teammates, model consistent physical activity, and encourage positive habits at practices and competitions. SODE proudly supports 16 trained Fitness Captains, each leading warm-ups, cool-downs, and wellness routines across various sports teams—ensuring fitness is woven into every athletic experience.

HEALTH MESSENGERS

Health Messengers are Special Olympics athletes trained to lead in health and wellness. They serve as advocates and role models, promoting healthy habits within their teams and communities. This year, four SODE Health Messengers participated in a national training in Washington, D.C., gaining hands-on leadership experience and building connections to strengthen their impact.

LETR STATE COMMITTEE

In 2024, athlete leadership on the Law Enforcement Torch Run® (LETR) State Committee continued to grow. Tommy Fields of the Wilmington Wizards served as Athlete Chair, with Richard Dunning of the Kent Wild Kats as Vice Chair. Launched as a pilot in 2023, these roles give athletes a direct voice in event planning, promotion, and building partnerships with law enforcement.

SUMMER GAMES COMMITTEE

Jerry Foskey of the Wilmington Wizards made history as the first SODE athlete to serve on the Summer Games Committee. His insight and experience brought valuable perspective to planning one of our largest sports events.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Also contributing at the highest level, Gene Giuliani (left) and Chris Truono (right) continue to serve as athlete representatives on the SODE Board of Directors—helping shape the future of our programs.
